3. Looking back:

What new skills have you learnt?

What skills have you improved?

What did you enjoy?

Why?

Part B: Observe, Review & Share!

Part B: This is where you will watch, read, review or observe someone else's craft or artwork.

What art or craft work did you view? (describe and document it here)

What did you think of it? (share your review here)

How did you share your review?
What did others think of your opinions?

Final Thoughts...

The Crafts Council is committed to life-long learning in craft throughout the UK.

We offer a range of fun and accessible learning programmes, from our national, free programme Craft Club to our work with Young People, and from a craft objects Handling Collection to development opportunities to support educators, makers and academics interested in contemporary craft and education.

See www.craftscouncil.org.uk for more information about our activities.
